

What's in a Name?

Name Puzzles

The name for flamingos originated from the Spanish word flamenco, meaning 'flame-colored' - for their stunning feathers. Use the clues to figure out the name of the birds below.

Example:

= Magpie

What species would you name after yourself and what would you call it?

What's in a Name?

See the answers below. Which bird is your favorite? Can you create a clue for a flamingo? Discover what birds live near your home, then see if you can create clues for their name and challenge a friend to solve. Share them with us at the zoo too!

