

Spot the Snow Leopard!

Snow leopards are masters of disguise, blending into their surrounds to ambush their prey. Can you spot a snow leopard lurking in each of these photos?

Snow leopard spot patterns are a type of camouflage called disruptive colouration. The edges of the animal blur against the rocky background, making them tricky to spot!

Spot the Snow Leopard!

Answer Key

