

Zoomazing Trivia

Eurasian – Answer Key

1. About 1 metre long
2. They were made a National Monument by the Japanese government and have gone from Endangered to Least Concern in the years since.
3. SSP is a Species Survival Plan – a managed breeding program.
4. Udaya and Linus
5. Jacobson's organs are used for smelling prey.
6. -45C to 45C
7. Scent marking is a mixture of urine and pheromones that lets others of the same species find mates.
8. We do training for enrichment, building a relationship between the animal and the zookeeper, and for medical purposes.
9. All horns are made of keratin.
10. Siberian Tigers used to roam all over Asia, but now they only live in the Amur Region of Russia, so the name was changed to reflect this change.

Thank you for supporting wildlife conservation

